

CANADA'S PREMIER
UNDERGRADUATE EXPERIENCE
WWW.STFX.CA

The Department of History and the Women's and Gender Studies Program at St. Francis Xavier University invite applications for a 9-month Limited Term Position beginning September 1, 2015. The desired area of specialization is Canadian Women's and Gender History with an ability to teach an introductory course in the Women's and Gender Studies Program and survey courses in Pre- and Post-Confederation Canadian History. Upper level courses will be in the candidate's area of expertise. Applicants should have a PhD in hand or have a defense scheduled and be able to show evidence of strong teaching ability at the undergraduate level. Electronic applications, including a curriculum vitae, letter of application, three letters of reference, and all relevant teaching and research materials, should be sent to Dr. Donna Trembinski, Chair, Department of History, St. Francis Xavier University, PO Box 5000, Antigonish, NS B2G 2W5 at dtrembin@stfx.ca, Phone (902) 867-3741, Fax (902) 867-3610. Consideration of applications will begin on Friday, March 6, 2015. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

All qualified candidates, especially women and members of minority groups, are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. St. Francis Xavier University is committed to the principle of employment equity.

February 9, 2015

