

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF WOMEN IN WORLD RELIGIONS: FAITH AND CULTURE ACROSS HISTORY, ABC-CLIO

Author-Scholars are needed for a major reference work on women and religion. This two volume encyclopedia will focus on women in world religions in several areas:

- 1) Ways in which women live and have lived their faith – their activities, movements, leadership, and contributions
- 2) Expectations, perceptions, and images of women according to scripture, tradition, and organizational structures
- 3) Ways that religions view and have viewed women's bodies as exemplifying divine or ideal attributes, and conversely, ways that religions view and have viewed women's bodies as seductive, polluting, exemplifying evil or lower nature, etc.

Entries are from 500 to 2000 words each and are organized alphabetically within the following categories: African Religions, Ancient Greek and Roman Religions, Baha'i, Buddhism, Christianity, Confucianism, Daoism, Hinduism, Islam, Jainism, Judaism, Native American, Paganism, Prehistoric Religions, Shinto, Sikhism, Spirituality.

If interested, please send a cv or brief summary of your relevant academic credentials to sjdegai@gmail.com. Include the encyclopedia title in the subject line of your message. Susan de Gaia, Ph.D. General Editor, Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions, ABC-CLIO SusanDeGaia.weebly.com