

EVENTS

Is God Really Dead? Why Belief Matters

Monday 12 February 2018, 6.30-8pm
Old Theatre, Old Building

Speaker: Professor Eileen Barker

Respondent: Professor Conor Gearty

Chair: Professor Nigel Dodd

About the event

Thirty years after founding INFORM, the information network on religious movements, Eileen Barker argues that the sociology of religion still has an important role in “knowing the causes of things”.

This event will celebrate Eileen’s work over the past 30 years. A celebratory drinks reception will follow the lecture.

This event is free and open to all.
Entry is on a first come, first served basis.

More information